SENSATIONAL EUROPEAN VILLAS WITH HOTELS ATTACHED

Want all the fabulous facilities of a high-end hotel, but also the space and serenity of a private villa? Why settle for one when you can have both? Hotel-savvy Francesca Syz checks into six fabulous European villas

3 Chateau St Pierre de Serjac, Languedoc, France

Set within a 200-acre vineyard estate in the Languedoc, this lovely chateau hotel has rooms in the main house and individually designed self-catering residences forged from characterful period outbuildings. Seventeen of these are exclusive-use villas, each with a large private garden and pool. That's in addition to the hotel pool, which has views over the vines and gardens, the Med Garden Spa with its indoor pool, and the restaurant, laid-back cocktail bar and winery. There's also a kid's club during the school holidays and yoga classes in the summer. Two-bedroom villas from €335 per night
