St PIERRE de SERJAC

St Pierre de Serjac

WHAT TO EXPECT

The authenticity of a working wine estate with the facilities of a luxury hotel; hotel rooms and larger stylish self-catering properties; the relaxed-yet-attentive service of a private club. Like the best French wines, St Pierre is an 'assemblage' – a destination that blends the best aspects of traditional holiday options.

Choose to do as much or as little as you like, perfect for romantic spa breaks and gastronomic weekends, family holidays, multigenerational travel or get-togethers with friends.

Self-Catering

For those wanting more space and independence, the original outbuildings have been converted into 36 stylish and fully equipped self-catering properties, sleeping up to 10 people. All come with generous living spaces, private terraces or gardens, BBQs and comfortable sun loungers and 17 have their own private pools, heated from May to October. Optional housekeeping and in-house catering is available to enhance your stay.
